

Clarence Williams

Director of Telehealth at Children's National Health System and responsible for leading the growth and operations of virtual care throughout the system. His work includes identifying priority programs; leading the assessment of new programs; implementing new programs; and guiding successful programs for long-term sustainability.

Prior to joining CNHS Clarence worked for Mercy Health Network (Catholic Health Initiatives & Trinity Health) and the Department of Veteran Affairs where spent several years building and sustaining telehealth programs and held other mainstream health care operations positions.

